policy compliance made easy

- Travelers choose options within your policies, whether reservations are made online or by phone
- Travelers can receive explanations about why a trip is — or is not — compliant with your travel policy, which dramatically improves their ability to complete bookings online
- Your travelers have a simple, seamless travel experience, while your company gets the policy compliance and savings it needs

value through technology and expertise

- Increased adoption through our easy-to-use online booking solution
- Global travel content and ticketing sites
- A private, secure online booking site configured with your travel policies in mind and built to drive bookings to your preferred suppliers

quality service for your travelers

- Knowledgeable agents, with an average of more than 15 years experience
- Consulting services, including assistance with supplier negotiations and an evaluation of your current program to find opportunities for additional savings
- Advanced tracking, reporting and proactive traveler security notifications innovative end-to-end solutions

- Features like Online Unused Ticket Tracking help you recuperate lost savings from unused, non-refundable airline tickets
- For government contractors, our automated solutions to complex policies like the Fly America Act keep your program compliant and cost-efficient
- For VIP and large groups and meetings travel, our partnership with Virgin Charter provides an affordable and efficient means to chartering private jets

travelocity business®

Travelocity Business evolved from the industry leaders— Sabre Holdings™, Travelocity® and GetThere®. It's from this history that Travelocity Business has developed the most advanced combination of service and technology that best fits the needs of business travelers and their companies.

That's why more than half of the FORTUNE 200 use the same technology that powers Travelocity Business.

Best of all, you can enjoy this full range of high quality services while saving significant travel dollars. Cut travel costs through flight deals, web fares, hotel discounts and reduced service fees.
